One proposed amendment to the constitution has been submitted. The proposed language change is the underlined portion of the paragraph below.

Purpose: Reduces the WPEC portion of the dues by the amount of the increase in the AFT dues.

Effective September 1, 2011 WPEC dues for Regular Members and fee payers shall be levied at the rate of $3.80 per month, plus AFT, AFT-W, and AFL-CIO per capita payments. Effective May 1, 2015 WPEC dues for Regular Members and fee payers shall be levied at the rate of $3.35 per month, plus AFT, AFT-W, and AFL-CIO per capita payments. Effective September 1, 2015 WPEC dues for Regular Members and fee payers shall be levied at the rate of $3.80 per month, plus AFT, AFT-W, and AFL-CIO per capita payments. Effective May 1, 2017 WPEC dues for Regular Members and fee payers shall be levied at the rate of $3.55 per month, plus AFT, AFT-W, and AFL-CIO per capita payments. Effective September 1, 2017 WPEC dues for Regular Members and fee payers shall be levied at the rate of $3.30 per month, plus AFT, AFT-W, and AFL-CIO per capita payments. Whenever the AFT, AFT-W, or AFL-CIO increases their per capita payments, the Executive Council may, by a 2/3 vote, reduce the WPEC portion of the dues by an amount up to the amount of the affiliate's per capita increase. Any such reduction in the WPEC portion of the dues will only be effective until the next WPEC Convention. Dues for the following Members and fee payers shall be levied as indicated:

The Convention is open to all WPEC members in good standing, including WPEC Retiree members. However, Retiree members may not vote. Information on the Convention is available at: www.wpec.org.
