

Women's March, 2017

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

This conference will examine the contributions of women in the workplace and in their unions. We will look at the obstacles and challenges that women have faced in trying to be accepted not only by their employers, but often by our unions.

And, we'll look at conditions today and discuss how the labor movement can better involve women.

Union activists, educators, academics, students and any interested persons are welcomed

GETTING TO THE CONFERENCE

Laborers Local 113 Building is located at 6310 W. Appleton Ave. (Wis Hwy 175), one half block south of W. Burleigh St.

From North: From I-43, take west exit at W. Capitol Dr.; go west to N. 60th St., south to W. Burleigh St., west to N. 63rd, turn left one-half block to parking lot at rear of Laborers Hall.

From Northwest: From I-94, take east exit at W. Burleigh St.; go east to W. Appleton Ave., turn left (south) go one-half block to hall on left.

From West and South: From I-94, take exit 308C at Stadium Interchange; go north on Hwy 175 and follow W. Lisbon Ave., continuing onto W. Appleton Ave. Turn at N. 63rd St. to parking lot on left.

For online map, copy and paste link below:

<https://tinyurl.com/wlhs2018>

Wisconsin Labor History Society

6333 W. Bluemound Rd.

Milwaukee WI 53213

414-771-0700 x20

Email: info@wisconsinlaborhistory.org

Wisconsin Labor
History Society
37th Annual Conference

Women and the Labor Movement:
The Quest for Gender Equity
and
Lessons for the Future

A conference for unionists, historians and others who care about the future of workers and their families

8:30 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Saturday, April 7, 2018

Laborers Local 113 Hall

6310 W. Appleton Ave.