

JOIN US ON SATURDAY, MARCH 9, FOR A SPECIAL SHOWING OF “A. PHILIP RANDOLPH FOR JOBS AND FREEDOM”

Fitchburg Public Library

5530 Lacy Road, Fitchburg, WI 53711

1:15 pm – 4:00 pm

By special proclamation of the WPEC Retirees Group, Black History Month has been extended into March. We decided February was too short

Join us to watch a film about an extraordinary man. A. Philip Randolph built the first successful black trade union, pressured President Franklin D. Roosevelt into issuing a proclamation barring discrimination in defense industries and federal bureaus and much more.

In 1963 he was called upon to use his extensive experience and broad contacts among various groups to organize the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom where Martin Luther King delivered his famous “I Have a Dream” speech.

The film is about an hour and a half. In the remaining hour, former WPEC chief steward Bill Franks, will lead a discussion.

Sponsored by WPEC (the Wisconsin Professional Employees Council). All union members and supporters welcome. Please rsvp to mail@wpec.org if possible so we can set up enough chairs.
