

Resolution

Organize Talk by CTU and Joe Burns

Whereas, AFT Local 1 the Chicago Teachers Union held a one day strike on April 1 involving at least 20,000 in large rallies across the city and has effectively pressured for a better state budget for all of IL, and

Whereas, Joe Burns is a Twin Cities former labor union president and labor attorney who wrote the books Reviving the Strike (2011) and Strike Back! (2013) about how labor unions must return to the strike to build power, including attention to public employee unions specifically in his second book, therefore,

Be it resolved, WPEC will work with other unions and organizations to organize an event in Madison to bring these leaders in public sector union action to share their lessons with us who are on the nation's front lines in the public sector labor struggle.
