Wisconsin Labor History Society—37th Annual Conference

Women and the Labor Movement:

The Quest for Gender Equity and Lessons for the Future

Saturday, April 7, 2018 — Laborers' Local 113 Hall, 6310 W. Appleton Ave., Milwaukee

8:30 a.m. Registration / Refreshments

9 a.m. Welcome

Steve Cupery, President
Wisconsin Labor History Society

Pam Fendt, President
Milwaukee Area Labor Council

"The Shop Environment,"
Breahn Quigley-Knackert, Steelworkers
Union Representative

"Breaking into Firefighting"
To be named

9:15 a.m. Introduction and Remarks
Jillian Jacklin, University of Wisconsin—
Madison Dept. of History

9:30 a.m. Annelise Orleck,
Professor of History, Dartmouth
College, author of studies
on women workers.

10:30 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. Overcoming Workplace Inequities: Testimonies.

"Women in the Construction Trades"
Sue Silverstein, Instructor, MATC

"Organizing in the Public Sector"
Barbara Follman, AFSCME retired

12 noon Lunch

12:45 p.m. Awards Presentation
Lifetime Achievement
High School Essay Contest Award
National History Day Winners Honored
Reading:

"Ain't I a Woman" famous speech of Sojourner Truth. Read by Ginger Jefferson

1:30 p.m. Afternoon Panel: The Road to Gender Equity in the Workplace
Panelists:

Kim Kohlhaas, President, AFT-Wisconsin

Pam Fendt, President, Milwaukee Area
Labor Council

*Stephanie Bloomingdale, Secretary-
Treasurer, Wisconsin State AFL-CIO

* Invited

3 p.m. Adjournment – Annual Meeting
Election of Officers
Other Business